DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are replete with errors too numerous to list separately. Examples include: a blind structure is said to be claimed. However, no actual blind structure has been recited; "a locating rod protruding at the cent of the locating rod thereof"; "proper depth"; "grooved a hole"; "both lateral walls" (no antecedent basis); claim 6 states that the structure "can also have" additional structure, which does not further limit the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being clearly anticipated by Liao.

See box 1 having a "step-wise engaging seat", spring 4, movable member 3, button 5, cover 2, rod 10 having "level facets" in the slits 131, passage holes 22, broadly recited "recoiling grooves", top of 3, and 33, hook 331, blocks 311 that have the tapered portions and abutting facets, plates 52 and through hole 21. Again, claim 6 is not considered since it states that the structure recited therein "can" be provided.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
